

curriculum vitae

JON P. AMOS

EXPERIENCE

March 1998–Present FedEx Kinko’s Monroe, LA

Center Assistant Manager

- Proven ability in customer service, consultation, and sales
- Experienced in all aspects of FedEx Kinko’s Center operations—including retail, production, shipping, daily accounting, and document creation, all involving a variety of networked systems and applications
- Hired in 1998 in Monroe, LA as Retail Consultant; transferred to Moscow, ID in 1999; promoted to Commercial Business Representative for Moscow, ID and Pullman, WA (September 2000–August 2001) and continued working part-time as Production Operator while teaching full-time (see below); transferred back to Monroe in October 2003 as Senior Customer Consultant; promoted to current position in January 2005

April 2004–January 2005 Grace Episcopal Church Monroe, LA

Parish Administrator

- Responsible for all publications, official parish communications, and desktop publishing, including a website overhaul and regular website updating (gracechurchmonroe.org), monthly newsletter (compiling, design, editing, printing, finishing, bulk mailing), weekly liturgical bulletins, etc.
- Responsible for all ordering and purchasing for the church office
- Responsible for maintaining utmost confidentiality while interacting daily with priests and parishioners

2001-2002 and 2002-2003 Atlas School Moscow, ID

Teacher and Board Member

- 2001-2002: Taught Latin to a class of twelve boys, ages 8-14, using Oxford Latin, while also teaching Latin at Montrose Academy (see below)
- 2002-2003: Taught General Education to a class of eight boys, ages 8-11, and Latin to a class of nine boys, ages 9-13, using Oxford Latin
- Served on the founding school board
- For more information about the school, visit atlasschool.com.

2001-2002 Montrose Academy Moscow, ID

Latin Instructor

- Taught Secondary Latin 2, using Wheelock’s Latin
- Taught Elementary Latin 1

JONAMOS@JUNO.COM

3900 SPURGEON DRIVE • MONROE, LA 71203 • (318) 355-7448

EDUCATION

1996-1998; 2004-Present University of Louisiana Monroe, LA

- Bachelor of General Studies expected in 2006
- Major: Arts and Humanities; Minors: Latin and Classical Studies
- Member, University Honors Program, 1997-1998

1999-2002 University of Idaho Moscow, ID

- Majors: Latin, English, and Music
- Member, Eta Sigma Phi, national collegiate honorary society for students of Latin and Greek
- Member, University Honors Program, 1999-2001

Fall 1995; 1999-2000 New St. Andrews College Moscow, ID

- Major: Liberal Arts and Culture
- From 1999-2000, studied theology, literature, and Bible under Dr. Peter Leithart (Ph.D., University of Cambridge, England), Senior Fellow of Theology and Literature

INTERESTS

Family: My wife Hollie and I have two sons, Ethan (3) and Levi (1), and one on the way. We are also close to our younger siblings—my six and Hollie’s three—and to our parents, grandparents and in-laws. Other interests include: church; good friends; email; music; language(s); imported and craft-brewed beers; reading; writing; blogging; editing for web publication (meshereth.org); playing classical guitar; watching TV and movies; planning for seminary and/or graduate school; etc.

REFERENCES

Father Andy Powell, priest and former coworker (Grace Episcopal Church)
Curate, Grace Episcopal Church; Chaplain, Grace Episcopal School
405 Glenmar Avenue, Monroe, LA 71201
(318) 387-6646

Virgil Hurt, former manager (Kinko’s, Moscow, ID and Pullman, WA)
Pastor, Providence Church
PO Box 3023, Lynchburg, VA 24503
(434) 847-4481

Courtney Huntington, friend and former classmate (New St. Andrews College)
Instructor, Department of English, ULM; President, Huntington Writing Co.
PO Box 2682, Monroe, LA 71207
(318) 812-2787